“ I feel lucky to have many wonderful memories of my big brother, O.J. The ones that are my favorite, is when I was a kid he used to come over and take me for rides in whatever souped up car he was driving at the time. We would race down 87th street with me holding on for dear life laughing the whole way. We had many times like that and even when I grew up I felt special when he would make time for just us. I will miss his laughter, and though he is gone from this world he will be in my heart always...

“ One of my BEST memories of my brother OJ is the time we went to Daytona Bike Week in 2004.
OJ picked me up in Lafayette and we went to PA to see Dad then to Florida. I rented a Harley and we rode to Daytona for a week. That was a great time! I always had fun with him. He made me laugh. He had a great smile.
RIP brother...until we meet again.
